Freedom of Information Policy

J Leeman

6/6/2017

1. Background

The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) was introduced to promote greater openness and accountability across the public sector, and establishes a general right of access to information held by public authorities. Along with Human Rights and Data Protection legislation, Freedom of Information (FOI) aims to build a culture of rights and responsibilities for citizens.

2. Right to request information

There is a legal right for any person to make a request to a school for access to information held by that school. Schools are under a duty to provide advice and assistance to anyone requesting information. Enquirers do not have to say why they want the information and the request does not have to mention FOIA.

The enquirer is entitled to be told whether the school holds the information (this is known as the duty to confirm or deny) and, if so, to have access to it. Access can include providing extracts of a document or a summary of the information sought, or access to the original document. However, the FOIA recognises the need to preserve confidentiality of sensitive information in some circumstances and sets out a number of exemptions.

There are only four reasons for not complying with a valid request for information under FOI:-

- the information is not held
- the cost threshold is reached
- the request is considered vexatious or repeated
- one or more of the exemptions apply

3. Responsibility and delegation:

Governors are responsible for the maintenance and review of this scheme and policy. The governors delegates to the Headteacher the day-to-day responsibility for FOIA policy and the provision of advice, guidance, publicity and interpretation of the school's policy. The Headteacher will provide a single point of reference, coordinate FOIA and related policies and procedures, take a view on possibly sensitive areas, ensure all staff are aware of the policy and consider what information and training staff may need. The Headteacher will ensure that a well-managed records management and information system exists in order to comply with requests. This will include keeping a record of refusals and reasons for refusals, to allow governors to review its access policy on an annual basis.

The Headteacher will ensure that requests are dealt with in accordance with 'The Freedom of Information Act 2000,

4. How to request information

If you would like to make a request under the FOIA, please:

- make the request in writing (this includes email or fax)
- state the enquirer's name and correspondence address (email addresses are allowed);
- describe the information requested - there must be enough information to be able to identify and locate the information.

You do not have to explain why you want the information or state that it is a FOI request, but it may help us to reply to your request more promptly if you let us know that it is a FOI request.

Requests for information should be addressed to:

Welford on Avon Primary School
Headland Road
Welford on Avon
CV37 8ER

5. Timeline for reply

We will do our utmost to reply to any request promptly. In any case, we will meet the legally prescribed limit of 20 working days, excluding non-school days. Where the 20th day to respond to a request is during a non-school day, we will have up to 60 days to respond. The response time starts from the time the request is received. Where we need to ask you for more information to enable us to answer, the 20 days start time begins when this further information has been received. If a qualified exemption applies and we need more time to consider the public interest test, we will reply within the 20 days stating that an exemption applies and include an estimate of the date by which a decision on the public interest test will be made. Where we have notified you that a charge is to be made, the time period stops until payment is received and then continues again once payment has been received.

6. Paying for information

Information published on the schools website is free, although you may incur costs from your Internet service provider. If you not have Internet access, you can access the school website using a local library

We aim to respond to FOIA requests free of charge. However, if your request means that we have to do incur significant costs, e.g. a significant amount of photocopying, printing, paying a large postage charge, or a request for a priced item such as some printed publications or DVDs, we will let you know the cost before fulfilling your request. Information will be charged at the actual cost of providing it (e.g. the cost of photocopying, plus time of employee photocopying information, plus postage and any other actual costs incurred as a result of providing the requested information). If we need to charge for providing the information, we will require payment before we can provide the information.

7. Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as 'classes'.

The classes of information that we undertake to make available are organised into broad topic areas:

- Who we are and what we do: general information about the schools e.g. its staff, leadership and governance, information about the curriculum, school terms and events.
- What we spend and how we spend it: financial information relating to projected and actual income and expenditure, tendering, procurement and contracts
- What our priorities are and how we are doing: strategy and performance information e.g. Ofsted report and results of SATs
- How we make decisions: decisions of the leadership of the school, and governors, as well as our Admissions policies.
